CENTRAL LABOR PARTY IN FAVOR EQUAL FRANCHISE

London, Thursday, March 7 .- Th committee of the central labor party. says an Exchange Telegraph dispatch from Copenhagen, quoting Berlin ad-vices, has declared in favor of equal franchise by a majority of 19 votes.

This probably refers to the franchise eform bill for Prussia which has been pending for almost a year. In an Easter message last year the king of Prussia recommended a more liberal franchise and an equal suffrage bill was introduced in the diet, but last month the conservatives put forward a substitute, emasculating the reform easure, which was accepted by the franchise committee of the lower

SLIGHT DECLINE TRADE QUIET ON IN CORN PRICES COTTON MARKET

New York, March 8.—The cotton market opened firm at an advance of 10 to 21 points in response to higher Liverpool cables, renewal of the Liverpool buying here and covering. The absence of rain in the southwest doubtless contributed to the advance, but the market met a good deal of realizing around 32.04 for May and 30.50c for October, or about 15 to 24 points above last night's closing figures. This caused reactions, with the market working 2 to 3 points under last night's closing figures before the end of the first hour. Business was fairly active at the start, but the market soon became quiet and the trade seemed to find no fresh inspiration in the general news.

No fresh feature developed during the early afternoon and trading continued quiet, with May ruling around 31.95c and October 30.22c, or about 6 points net higher to 4 points lower.

After selling off to 31.87c for May and 30.32c for October, the market steadied late in the morning on a continued but moderate demand from spot house brokers and buillish spot advices. Trading was very quiet, however, with the market meeting enough scattered liquidation to hold prices around 31.96c for May and 30.33c for October, or about 7 points was very quiet, however, with the market meeting enough scattered liquidation to hold prices around 31.96c for May and 30.33c for October, or about 7 points was very quiet, however, with the market meeting enough scattered liquidation to hold prices around 31.96c for May and 30.33c for October, or about 7 points above last night's closing figures.

SAFEGUARD SUPPLIES Germany Demanded Rumania

Transport Troops.

Amsterdam, March 8.-Explanation of the preliminary peace treaty with Rumania is made in a statement issued to the Austrian press at Vienna. It says that Dobrudja was transferred to the central powers as a whole in order to make the decision easier for Rumania.

The frontier adjustments in Transylvania, in general, mean the protection of the iron gates and the Petrozeni mines, as wen as against fresh surprise attacks. The new frontier, however, will not go deeply into Rumania. The economic zeni mines, as well as precaution new frontier, however, will not go deeply into Rumania. The economic demands relate particularly to imports of petroleum and agricultural products and the evacuation of Austria-Hungary by Rumanian troops affects a strip of Bukowina still occupied by the Ru-

Finally, the statement says, the stipulation that Rumania must give transport facilities for the troops and transport of the central powers to Odessa appeared necessary in order to safe-guard the shipment of large grain supplies from Odessa by way of the Volga Dnieper and Danube rivers to the central empires.

there. People from all walks of life were in attendance at the services, and fellow-workers of Mr. Rogers in civic, com-mercial and fraternal organizations occupied the center and left sections of the auditorium. Many men were in the right section. Practically every seat was taken and a large number stood in the rear of the church and at the entrances. Pews at the front of the church were reserved for relatives. Many beautiful floral designs and bouquets, coming from the various organizations, from individuals and from out of the city, were banked on the pulpit. It required three large trucks to carry the flowers to the cemetery. A funeral dirge was played by the Shrine band. Dr. Wiley opened the services with prayer. Music by a mixed quartet was followed by two scripture readings. The ninetieth Psalm was read by Dr. McCallie. Dr. Wiley read a passage from Revelations. Then fol-lowed the messages of the ministers.
